MEMBERS of the 96th Troop Carrier Squadron of the Air Force report to their unit after notification that they were to return to active duty along with 14,214 Air Force reservists. After the reserve call-up, Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev told President Kennedy that he had ordered Soviet missile bases in Cuba to be dismantled and returned to Russia. Another reserve unit called up was the 302nd Troop Carrier Wing based at Clinton County Air Force Base, Wilmington. A spokesman said the wing had been assigned to control of the Tactical Air Command, but would remain at the base for the time being. Several Fayette Countians are members of the wing.

Sandusky Set To Welcome Miss America

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP)—America's personification of charm and beauty, Jacquelyn Jeanne Mayer, reigning Miss America, comes home this week for the first time since her crowning, and Sandusky is going all out to welcome her.

For weeks the townfolks have been making preparations—hanging banners and arranging events in Jackie's honor.

A contingent from Sandusky plans to meet her at Cleveland Hopkins Airport Wednesday night. The next day, Miss Mayer will visit public schools, including Sandusky High School, from which she graduated.

Thursday afternoon a parade is scheduled. A public reception at the high school is planned that night.

GOP Searches For New Issue After JFK's Cuban Victory

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans may turn to the one-party government theme pounded by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower as a substitute for the Cuban issue in the congressional campaign.

The prospect that Soviet Premier Khrushchev will comply with President Kennedy's demand for withdrawal of Soviet missiles and the dismantling of launching pads on the island deprived GOP candidates of an issue many of them had hoped would spell victory in any otherwise close contest.

With Kennedy's personal popularity and that of his party likely to be enhanced by any satisfactory final settlement of the Cuban controversy which involves no major U.S. concessions, Republicans searched for an issue to fill a vacuum.

Eisenhower gave them a cue in a weekend speech in Marion, Ill., when he said the Cuban crisis is

3 Ohio Air Units Activated; Callup Of Year Ago Recalled

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP)—Two more Ohio Air Force Reserve squadrons and a wing headquarters have been called to active duty in the Cuba crisis.

Two squadrons of the 302nd Troop Carrier Wing, based at Clinton County Air Force Base near here, were ordered to active duty Saturday night by Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara.

Last Thursday, the 837th Air Force Reserve Recovery Group and the 923rd Air Force Reserve Recovery Squadron, both of Columbus, were activated for 10 days. They are working at Port Columbus Airport in Columbus.

In ordering the callup 24 troop carrier squadrons Saturday night, McNamara said they would serve up to 12 months.

Col. Donald J. Campbell of Cincinnati, 302nd Wing commander, said his units will remain at Clinton County for the present time. The wing's third squadron, the 357th based at Mobile, Ala., also was among the 24 units activated.

A third Ohio Reserve troop carrier squadron, the 75th at Youngstown, was not listed among the units recalled.

By PHIL GUNBY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—There was another Oct. 29, exactly a year ago, and the U.S. Air Force had ordered some of its reservists from Ohio to active duty then, too.

The immediate crisis at the time was Berlin. The Ohioans recalled were Air National Guardsmen, reservists trained in much the same manner as the Air Force Reservists called up in recent days from Columbus and Clinton County units.

Here is what was happening Oct. 29, 1961, to just one of those 1,800 or so Ohio Air Guardsmen activated four weeks earlier.

At 4 a. m. he awoke, shaved, pulled on brand new and awkwardly heavy boots and borrowed coveralls and jacket, took a last long look at his sleeping wife and three small children, picked up his bag and went out the door.

As an obliging neighbor drove him to the base where a huge transport plane waited to fly him to Europe, a scene of a few hours earlier replayed across his mind.

He'd gone up to say goodnight to the children—Goodbye, really. He'd decided to be casual, just like any other evening. Hear their prayers, tell them a story, say goodnight, turn out the light and walk away, that was the way to handle it.

It all went like he'd figured, until it was time to say goodnight. Then the oldest, the girl who was 4, looked up and murmured: "Daddy, why do you have to go away and leave us?"

He did his best with it, saying that he didn't really want to go, that he'd be back soon, that Daddies have to try to make sure everything is all right in the world for their families.

And then he said goodnight and hurried out.

He knew literally thousands of other men have gone through this. For him and almost all of his fellow Ohioans, it turned out all right. There was no shooting, and—with four tragic exceptions—all came through the callup safely. For others, in the past, it had been rougher, much rougher.

But it seemed plenty rough enough at the time. Yet now, a year later and back with his family since August, the recalled Air Guardsman treasures the memory. Whenever he gets to feeling sorry for himself, he remembers how lucky he is.

I know, I'm the guy.

Note In Bottle Calls Solon

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bottle fished from the sea summoned Rep. Hale Boggs, the assistant Democratic leader in the House, to last Monday's meeting with President Kennedy on the Cuban crisis.

The Louisianaan, recalling the novel message, gave this account:

"I was 30 miles out in the Gulf of Mexico on a boat. About that time a plane started circling, an Air Force plane, and came right down. I looked down . . . a bottle was ejected from the plane and we fished it out of the water.

The note inside the bottle said 'Call Operator 18, Washington. Urgent message from the President.' The signature, Boggs said, was that of presidential assistant Larry O'Brien, whose White House job is liaison with Congress members.

Reds Laud Khrush As 'Peace Savior'

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet press and radio did its best today to depict Premier Khrushchev as the man who averted a possible thermonuclear war over Cuba.

First Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov's statement in New York saying Khrushchev and the Soviet government "are sparing no effort to avert the danger of war" was quoted here.

There were similar statements from half a dozen capitals commending Khrushchev for withdrawing what he described as "grim" weapons—in other words rockets.

Only three days ago the papers were saying there were no such rockets, and that American photographs of their bases were faked.

3 Aides Named For Parleys With Soviets

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy set up a special three-man committee today to handle negotiations looking toward an end to the Cuban crisis.

Kennedy designated John J. McCloy, whom he previously had appointed special assistant to U.N. Ambassador Adlai Stevenson during the period of the Cuban emergency, as chairman of the group.

The other members are Undersecretary of State George W. Ball and Deputy Secretary of Defense Roswell L. Gilpatrick.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger described the group as "a coordinating committee to give full time and attention to the matters involved in the conclusion of the Cuban crisis."

He said the group would report directly to the President but act under the supervision of the three officials concerned. These are Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, and Stevenson.

Ball and Gilpatrick left for New York after attending the daily meeting of the executive committee of the National Security Council this morning. McCloy already was in New York.

Salinger said the coordinating committee would function in New York.

The press secretary said it would be concerned with "implementing the letters of President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev."

In these letters, exchanged over the weekend, Soviet Premier Khrushchev pledged dismantling of Soviet bases in Cuba and a halt to the delivery of offensive weapons to the Castro regime in return for an end to the U.S. blockade and a no-invasion pledge.

Khrushchev has dispatched Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily Kuznetsov to the United Nations to work with Acting Secretary-General U Thant in dealing with the many details involved in a settlement.

Washington policymakers held hope—mixed with liberal doses of caution—that a breakthrough has been scored in the U.S.-Soviet confrontation that bordered on potential nuclear conflict.

Khrushchev's pledge was hailed in Western capitals as a stunning victory for the United States.

Informed sources said there were no deals or secret understandings involved with the Soviet leader's offer to dismantle the Cuban bases and return their rockets to the Soviet Union. The only price he asked was a guarantee, which Kennedy gave, that the United States would not invade Cuba.

American diplomats focused on working out arrangements for U.N. inspection of the withdrawal from Cuba of the "grim weapons" which Khrushchev, under threat of forceful U.S. action, dramatically announced he would ship back to the Soviet Union.

U.N. Acting Secretary-General U Thant arranged to fly to Cuba Tuesday. The U.S. hope is that he can take with him a workable inspection plan to present to Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

Khrushchev sent Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily Kuznetsov to New York to negotiate. He said on his arrival Sunday night, "We are sure peace can be achieved if all parties concerned will exercise good will and a reasonable approach."

Militarily, the U.S. Navy marked time while Soviet ships once headed for Cuba stayed from two to three days' sailing time away. The State Department announced that while the quarantine against offensive weapons shipments to Cuba continues, it expects no interceptions by the U.S. blockaders.

U.N. Chief Poised For Talks To Clinch Cuban Settlement

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)

U.N. acting Secretary-General U Thant scheduled more talks with Soviet and U.S. officials today and made hurried plans for a trip to Cuba in an urgent effort to tie down a Soviet-American deal settling the Cuban crisis.

Thant was to confer separately with Soviet First Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov, chief U.S. delegate Adlai E. Stevenson and Cuban chief delegate Mario Garcia-Inchaustegui.

The secretary-general and a dozen aides will fly to Havana Tuesday to begin arrangements for U.N. supervision of the withdrawal of Soviet missiles which premier Khrushchev and President Kennedy agreed to in an exchange of letters Sunday. Thant goes to Cuba at Prime Minister Fidel Castro's invitation.

Castro last Tuesday rejected U.N. observers in Cuba. It was assumed here Khrushchev's reversal of the Soviet position on the missile bases also reversed Castro's opposition to observers.

Kuznetsov arrived from Moscow Sunday night and told newsmen, "We are sure peace can be achieved if all parties concerned will exercise good will and a reasonable approach."

Stevenson saw Thant Sunday morning and received a letter from the secretary-general to Kennedy. Sunday night he delivered the President's reply.

The contents were kept secret. But after Stevenson's second call on Thant, a U.S. source said the central problem was that the United States still had no information that Soviet missile bases in Cuba were being dismantled as pledged by Khrushchev.

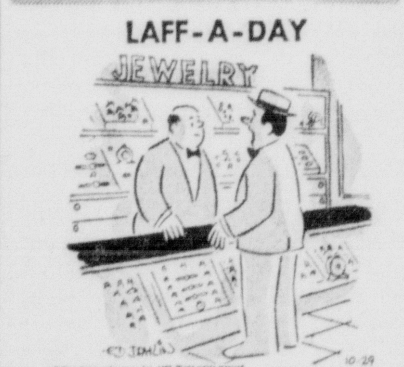

The source said the United States expected prompt action from the United Nations. Earlier, an informed diplomat reported

Hurricane Death Toll In Thailand Near 1,000

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Officials fear the death toll from last week's Hurricane Harriet may rise to nearly 1,000 in flooded areas of southern Thailand.

Six hundred bodies already have been reported recovered, and press reports said it was believed hundreds of others were being washed out to sea.

As many as 40,000 homes were destroyed in one of the three provinces hardest hit by the storm last Thursday and Friday.

U.S. To Provide India With Weapons To Fight Chinese Communist Horde

NEW DELHI (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru asked the United States today for weapons to fight the Chinese Communists. U.S. Ambassador John Kenneth Galbraith assured Nehru he would get them.

Nehru sought American help as a major battle loomed for a vital 2½-mile Himalayan pass on the route to India's densely populated Assam Plains.

The Indian army was rushing reinforcements to the Se Pass to try to stem the advance of at least one 10,000-man Chinese division striking forward from the key northeast border town of Towang which fell last week.

More Castro Sabotage Seen

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—The Maracaibo oil fields were made a military zone today as hundreds of American and Venezuelan technicians labored to repair damage caused by Castroite saboteurs which knocked out a sixth of this country's oil production.

The Interior Ministry said two captured saboteurs were Venezuelan Communists apparently acting on orders from Havana. U.S. Diplomats spread word among Latin American governments to be wary of an expected continent-wide Castro sabotage campaign.

Officials revised their estimate of the time for repairs of the damage, saying production could be restored within a week. Earlier estimates had put the time at a month, perhaps three.

Authoritative sources in Washington said Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro gave the signal for general terrorist action in Latin America with the American-operated oil fields in Venezuela a prime target. Saboteurs dynamited four power stations of the Creole Petroleum Corp. at Lake Maracaibo, which holds beneath its waters one of the world's richest oil stores. The lake, roughly 75 miles wide and 130 miles long, lies about 300 miles west of Caracas.

The bombers struck shortly after midnight Saturday a few hours after President Romulo Betan court ordered mobilization of the armed forces to counter what he called the threat to Venezuela of "the reservoir of Soviet nuclear rockets in Cuba."

U.S. officials were reported reminding Latin Americans that while a settlement may now be in sight to dismantle the Soviet missile sites, the long-range problem of dealing with Castro in this hemisphere will remain.

Venezuela blamed the oil field bombing on "Communists." Two suspects were hauled out of the debris-strewn waters of Lake Maracaibo after the blasts destroyed transformer stations of Creole Petroleum, a subsidiary of Standard Oil of New Jersey.

Police said one of the blasts apparently blew up the saboteurs' boat, killing one of the bombers. One of the suspects was so badly burned he was blinded.

A Creole spokesman said the entire Tijuana oil field in the lake was rendered inoperable. He estimated it would take about a month to get the field back to its daily production of 525,000 barrels. Other sources said it might take as long as three months.

letter from President Kennedy expressing sympathy for India in the present emergency and "something more tangible," the spokesman said. In response Nehru made the first direct request for American arms.

Details of weapons needed are now being discussed with Indian military men, the spokesman said.

If the line at Se Pass does not hold, the next stand for the beleaguered Indians probably would be at Bomdila, last important pass on the way to the Assam Plains.

A fair road connects Bomdila with the plains, enabling the Indian army to bring up light tanks and overcome a supply weakness partly responsible for some of the steady reverses of the nine-day-old border war.

Hard fighting also was indicated on the Ladakh front, some 850 miles westward along the jagged Himalayan frontier. The Indians said one post was lost there when the Chinese opened an attack around Demchok in overwhelming numbers with rapid-firing weapons.

The battleground there is nearly three miles high. Demchok is close to the undefined border of Kashmir, and the attack constitutes the farthest southward Chinese thrust in the western sector.

Galbraith delivered to Nehru a tie. But no Soviet ships were reported within two or three days' steaming time of the U.S. quarantine line thrown up nearly a week ago.

There was an almost tangible easing of the tension that gripped the nation during the past week of crisis.

There was no accompanying reversal of the military preparations which had been mounting toward an indicating bombing strike or invasion of Cuba.

Informed officials said they don't expect to see any substantial reduction in those land, sea and air preparations at least until this country is convinced the missile threat from Cuba is removed.

Even after that it is almost certain that aerial surveillance will be continued over Cuba to make sure there is no new sneak try at setting up ballistic missiles pointed toward the United States.

Authorities said the 14,000 Air Force Reservists who went on active duty Saturday probably will be kept in service for the time being.

The Pentagon announcement Saturday night that the Reservists were being called up to man troop-carrying planes hinted very strongly at a possible invasion.

Officials believe the significance of this pointed announcement—together with a declaration that appropriate measures will be taken to insure that U.S. reconnaissance aircraft are protected—was not lost on the Kremlin.

They said the United States was speaking to Soviet Premier Khrushchev through these announcements, and they called the studied U.S. military buildup "a most dramatic application of military force to achieve diplomatic ends."

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Death took 13 lives on Ohio's highways over the weekend.

Europe Is Greatly Relieved By Retreat Of Russia In Cuba

LONDON (AP)—Western Europe hailed the Soviet Union's retreat in the Cuban crisis as a stunning victory for the United States and greeted it universally with profound relief today.

The dramatic turn of events was seen as opening up possibilities for new East-West negotiations on the whole question of disarmament.

President Kennedy emerged in the West as the undisputed hero of the crisis. Soviet Premier Khrushchev also came in for some praise.

Banner headlines such as "Back from the brink," "Retreat from danger" and "End of a nightmare" reflected Europe's mood of deep thankfulness at having escaped the horrors of nuclear war.

The British government officially welcomed the Soviet announcement that it is ready to dismantle its Cuban missile sites. A few hours earlier Prime Minister Harold Macmillan had messaged Khrushchev that such a move would open the way to wider negotiations on a nuclear test ban and disarmament generally.

Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak said Khrushchev must be thanked and congratulated for his action.

Danish Foreign Minister Per Hækkerup expressed hope that the new Soviet-U.S. contact on Cuba might lead to "a final settlement in peace."

In the Soviet Union, Pravda published the messages exchanged between Kennedy and Khrushchev on its front page.

In neutral Sweden one headline described the Soviet move as a retreat and unconditional surrender. Said the conservative Svenska Dagbladet: "The capitulation is so complete that it is without comparison in earlier stages of the cold war."

Rhodes Hopes For Report In Probe Soon

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Auditor James A. Rhodes said today he hopes for a public report within 48 hours on one of two formal inquiries into state operations stemming from Ohio's hot gubernatorial battle.

Two public accounting firms began checking records in the office of Rhodes, Republican candidate for governor, at his request to refute charges of fraud by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, incumbent Democrat.

The governor devoted an hour-long news conference to elaboration of his claims that Rhodes' examiners seeking rent for use of state adding machines in auditing the books of subdivision.

During part of that time, Rhodes was telling news and cameramen that he expects to be cleared of the "irresponsible charges by a desperate candidate" and that he would rest his case before the voters on the inquiry report.

He said Price-Waterhouse Co. was hired in addition to the firm of Ernst and Ernst, Cleveland, to speed the investigation for which the Emergency Board provided $15,000. DiSalle said he still wants an investigation by an out-of-state firm and that he would make such a request of the board at a meeting scheduled today.

The special investigators hired by DiSalle refused to turn over to Deputy Auditor William Morris a copy of their report on which DiSalle based his charge. Morris said they may be cited for contempt under authority of the auditor's office. He claimed their refusal was an attempt to delay the investigation.

David Purkey, DiSalle's legal aide, said Franklin County Common Pleas Court would be asked for an order requiring Rhodes to turn over specified records to the governor. The action was scheduled.

New Holland Store Wrecked By Flash Fire

NEW HOLLAND — The stock and fixtures of the Midway Villa, a grocery store and delicatessen on Rt. 22 at the west edge of New Holland, were destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon.

Only the smokeblackened walls of the concrete block building, almost across the highway from Belk's Rathskeller, remain.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hill, proprietors, said the loss could not be estimated immediately.

Although the New Holland Volunteer Fire Department was at the scene within minutes, Earl Rohrer, who drove the tanker, said "everything inside the building was gone" when the fire fighters arrived.

An investigation to determine the cause of the blaze which gutted the building in so short a time is under way.

The Hill's trailer home, within a few yards of the burning building, was not damaged. The concrete walls of the building and water poured on it by the firemen was credited with saving it.

France Waits For DeGaulle's Poll Reaction

PARIS (AP) — France waited anxiously today to see if President Charles de Gaulle considered his referendum victory decisive enough for him to stay on as president. The outlook was that he would and that the nation would continue in a period of bitter political strife.

The country's voters approved Sunday, De Gaulle's proposed constitutional amendment providing for direct election of presidents, an issue which De Gaulle turned into a test of strength with the majority of the nation's politicians. He deliberately tied his political life to a solid majority, saying he would resign if the approval was "weak, mediocre or doubtful."

De Gaulle won, but the margin was less than his followers expected, and only a minority of the French electorate approved his proposal.

Complete official returns from metropolitan France, including Corsica, were:

Yes—12,810,848, 61.76 per cent of valid ballots.

No—7,939,399, 38.24 per cent of valid ballots.

The "yes" votes represented only 46.3 per cent of the registered voters. Fully a fourth of the electorate abstained, mostly by staying at home although some cast blanks or spoiled their ballots. De Gaulle's backing on previous referendums had never been less than 56 per cent of all the voters.

Government Set To Study Cancer-Smokes

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government took final action Saturday aimed at starting a broad new study by non-biased scientists on the controversy over whether tobacco smoking has adverse health effects such as lung cancer.

Surgeon General Luther L. Terry announced the membership of a 10-man Advisory Committee on Smoking and Health and said it would meet Nov. 9-10 in Washington.

The committee, selected by the surgeon general from a list of approximately 150 names submitted to the Public Health Service by federal agencies, voluntary health organizations and the tobacco industry, has a two-fold mission:

1. To make a "comprehensive review of all available data on smoking and other factors in the environment that may affect health"—a study expected to last about six months.

2. To make recommendations for action at the completion of the study.

Terry, in announcing plans for setting up the committee several months ago, said no scientist who already had taken a strong public position—pro or con—on the smoking and lung cancer controversy would be named to the panel.

Sark, excellent high priest of the grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons in Ohio. The reception will be held Nov. 17 in Ashville.

Sark was elected at the 148th annual convocation in Columbus Oct. 24.

Stock Market Prices Lifted

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market today celebrated the apparent agreement on the Cuban crisis with a burst of buying which lifted prices substantially. Trading was active early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up to a sharp gain of 3.7 at 2:14 p.m., with industrials up 5.6, rail-up 1.3, and utilities up 2.2.

Key stocks were up from fractions to more than 2 points on a broad front, clipping their gains somewhat as the early excitement moderated.

Litton Industries was up 1½, Polaroid 2½, IBM, 8½, Zenith 3½, and Burroughs 2.

The advance took in most major sections of the list, but the space age defense stocks made only small gains at the start. As the session wore on most of these gains melted in view of the fact that international tensions seemed to be easing. Boeing, United Aircraft, and General Dynamics were about unchanged. Douglas Aircraft eased.

Hook-Ladder Fire Truck's Rear Driver Is AWOL

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A hook and ladder fire truck that is supposed to have drivers both in the front and back pulled out of a downtown fire house on a call before the rear driver got in his seat.

Schools Make Plans To Safeguard Children In Event Of Enemy Attack

The Washington C. H. and Miami Trace school systems were making plans Monday to insure the safety of pupils during school hours in event of enemy attack.

Marshall Boggs, superintendent of city schools, and Walter W. Boyer, executive head of the Miami Trace schools, both announced they are preparing to carry out recommended Civil Defense programs.

And Virgil Sexton, county CD director, expressed hope that full public support of these programs would continue despite the lessening of tension over Cuba.

"We are living in a time of crises," Sexton said. "We must expect it and be prepared for it. This is no time to let our guard down."

BOGGS OUTLINED the steps being taken in the city schools:

One of the major radio networks will be monitored during the hours students are in school for the latest news developments.

Plans for evacuation are being developed and a trial run will be conducted soon. Parents will be notified as to the time of the trial run.

Students will be given instructions on how to protect themselves. A training program for staff members is being developed.

The basements of Washington High School and Cherry Hill and Rose Avenue elementary schools have been designated as fallout shelters. The basement area of St. Charles is also being designated as a fallout shelter.

If you are at home, get into your home shelter immediately or, if you have none, shut all outside doors and windows and take cover in the basement or a first floor room.

If you are outdoors, seek the best available cover. Stay put until you get word to

What To Do...

If an air raid is imminent: The city sirens will sound steadily for three to five minutes. They sound only for one minute on fire alarms.

Then the sirens will give a warning blast for another three to five minutes. This is similar to the fire alarm signal, but will be continuous.

If you are at home, get into your home shelter immediately or, if you have none, shut all outside doors and windows and take cover in the basement or a first floor room.

If you are outdoors, seek the best available cover. Stay put until you get word to of calm and control. Orderly procedures are the antidote of panic. Every effort should be made to get the maximum self control of both adults and children.

He said it would be necessary to use volunteer help in monitoring radio programs, in first aid work and in development of shelter activity programs.

BOYER SAID the Miami Trace schools would carry out a similar program.

Sexton emphasized the importance of such a program. "We can't start the children for home," he said.

"Our instructions are: If attack is imminent, stay put."

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Taxicab service in Akron was at a standstill today because of a dispute over union recognition for 70 drivers of the G. I. Cab Co.

The city's only cab companies, G. I. and City Yellow Cab Co., which are jointly owned, stopped service Sunday.

Drunk Drivers Fined, Jailed

Traffic Charges Aired In Court

Two men received jail sentences and fines of $200 each in Municipal Court Monday morning after Judge Max G. Dice found them guilty of driving while intoxicated.

Three other persons paid traffic fines totaling $25 and $65 in bonds were forfeited by three persons who failed to appear on traffic charges.

Fined $200 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail on one DWI count was Orba Edwin Brown, 35, Rt. 1, Jeffersonville.

Brown was arrested early Sunday on State Rt. 729, east of Jeffersonville, by Jeffersonville Police Chief Robert Carr. Brown's driver's license was suspended pending his compliance with the Financial Responsibility Law.

Ross Hershel Sykes, 40, Greenfield, also convicted of DWI, was fined $200 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail. He was fined an additional $10 for driving without an operator's license and lost the right of obtaining a license pending his compliance with the Financial Responsibility Law.

Sykes was arrested Saturday evening on Rose Ave. by Police Patrolman Charles Long.

OTHERS FINED were: William Thomas Stage, 18, E. Circle Ave., $15 for reckless operation on S. Fayette St.

Carl J. Wierman, 40, Cincinnati, $5 and costs for speeding 49 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on Columbus Ave.

Forfeiting bond were: Ralph E. Wain, 23, Rt. 5, $20, excessive noise on Washington Ave.

Mary Klein Schemel, 45, Cincinnati, $20, reckless operation on W. Court St.

Marion Levi Scott, 23, Greenfield, $25, allowing an unlicensed operator to drive his car, on E. Circle Ave.

Court Fines Three After Ruckuses

Judge Max G. Dice fined each of three Washington C. H. men $10 and costs, and gave one of them a suspended 10-day jail sentence in Municipal Court Monday on charges of disorderly conduct.

Oliver N. Crabtree, 49, of 1121 Rawlins St., was fined $10 and costs and sentenced to 10 days in jail for disorderly conduct, on an affidavit signed by Viola Crabtree. The jail sentence was suspended.

Financier Ready To Face Fraud Trial

NEW YORK (AP) — Financier Edward M. Gilbert, who fled to Brazil after being charged with misappropriating $2 million from the E. L. Bruce hardwood flooring firm, arrived by plane today and gave himself up to a waiting U.S. marshal.

Gilbert fled to Brazil June 12. He returned voluntarily to face federal and state indictments that could cost him up to 74 years in prison and fines totaling $82,000.

Gilbert, who was president of E. L. Bruce Co., told newsmen in Rio de Janeiro he had taken the funds solely to help Bruce gain control of the Celotex Corp., a maker of building materials. He blamed the stock market drop of May 28 for his troubles.

Gilbert also said in Rio he had made no deals with anyone in deciding to return to the U.S. from Brazil, which has no extradition treaty with this country.

Window-Smashing Vandals Cause Havoc On S. Main St.

Vandalism and thefts kept city police busy over the weekend.

All the glass in the rear windows and door of the former Union Bus Terminal Building 205 S. Main St., all the glass in an outside telephone booth, and 44 windows in the adjoining Midland Grocery Co. building were broken sometime Saturday, probably between 6 and 9 p.m. The report was received at police headquarters at 7 a.m. Monday.

The vandals entered the former bus station building, apparently by unlocking the rear door from the inside, after the glass was broken. They smashed several vending machines stored there. No money was taken from the machines.

ABOUT 120 juke box records were strewn over the rear parking area and throughout the inside of the building. Two smaller vending machines were carried outside after being smashed. Total damage to the property owned by Tom Murray, Devalon Rd., was estimated at nearly $300.

The small restaurant which adjoins the vacant bus terminal was not damaged in any way. However, Patrolman Rodman Scott said that in addition to breaking the 44 windows in the Midland building at 153 S. Main St., the vandals broke a window in the Masonic Temple building, next door to the north. Rocks and a steel bar were used.

Scott said the restaurant closed at 6 p.m., and that since the records had been rained on (it stopped raining at or before 9 p.m.),

The Nation Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Premier Khrushchev's backdown on Cuba gives President Kennedy a victory but any appearance of peace is illusory and temporary, for Cuba and elsewhere.

Nevertheless, some of the Soviet and Cuban actions in this crisis look stupid if not nutty. The biggest unanswered question still is: Why did Khrushchev decide to put missile bases in Cuba in the first place?

He took the shock out of the crisis Sunday with his astonishingly mild agreement to pull his missiles out. But that doesn't solve the problem of Fidel Castro.

As if to prove peace is a dream, this happened: Just a few hours after Khrushchev said he'd back up, from Venezuela The Associated Press reported saboteurs, believed to be Castro followers, blew up enough power stations to knock out a sixth of the country's oil production.

A Havana radio signal instructing Venezuelan Communists to take action against the oil fields there was heard by U.S. and Venezuelan government sources. Radio Havana was reported calling openly for an insurrection in Honduras.

This, coming on the heels of Khrushchev's protest against any interference with the Cuban people, makes no sense unless it can be interpreted as Castro's way of showing that, even without Soviet missiles, he intends to be a menace.

From Miami The Associated Press reported Cuban exile leaders shrugged at Khrushchev's decision to withdraw the missiles and proceeded with their anti-Castro business.

Revolutionary Council President Jose Miro Cardona said: "The council is continuing its struggle for overthrow of the Communist dictatorship."

Khrushchev, if only to avoid the demoralizing effect on other Latin-American Communists that abandoning Castro would mean, will have to keep him in business with arms and supplies, if not missiles.

And the United States, which has kept alive the hope of Cuban refugees that they someday will be able to throw Castro out, can hardly change course on that.

Sooner or later, therefore, Castro should be involved actively or passively in new explosions, and all the withdrawal of the missiles may mean is that the United States won't be in danger of nuclear attack.

It's possible that Castro — sold down the river by Khrushchev on the missiles, at least, to avoid war with the United States—may be bounced by his own followers in Cuba. That looks like a long shot now.

James Marlow

Meanwhile, the Russians, who were expected to create a crisis over Berlin before year's end, are still in a position to do that.

Khrushchev so far as is known put no price tag on his agreement to take his missiles back home. That doesn't mean he won't spring one later. For instance, by again demanding that the United States remove its missiles from Turkey.

Kennedy wouldn't buy that one when Khrushchev proposed it Saturday as a swap for his taking his missiles out of Cuba. Then Khrushchev dropped the demand.

But the United States, in the eyes of the non-Ally world, can hardly claim more justification for having missiles in Turkey, right next to the Soviet Union than Khrushchev could for putting missiles in Cuba, 90 miles from America.

Since he withdrew his, to avoid a war, he may get a lot of non-Ally support around the world if, sooner or later, he demands that the United States return the compliment in Turkey.

It's hard to think Khrushchev put missiles in Cuba on impulse, assuming the United States don't detect them and that they later could be used to blackmail and blackmail this country in any showdown Khrushchev started.

In the first place, this would have had to be a high-pollcy decision in the Kremlin since it so deeply involved Soviet foreign policy. Second, the Russians know this country keeps Cuba under constant observation and would therefore discover the missiles.

It's possible Khrushchev thought that even if the missiles in Cuba were discovered, Kennedy would not have the nerve to force a showdown. This would have been a reckless gamble.

But looked at from any angle — in view of Khrushchev's backdown—the operation was stupid unless possibly Khrushchev had banked on something like this: That even if Kennedy forced a showdown, the President's fear of starting a war might have induced him to agree to a compromise with Khrushchev on something else Khrushchev wanted badly.

Inside You And Yours

Does an irritable intestine keep you rushing to the bathroom with false alarms?

You may have a spastic colon — if special tests and X-rays rule out cancer and other serious trouble.

Spastic colon's choppy, irritable spasms replace those smooth waves that normally whip everything along the large intestine, or "colon."

Intestinal flow slows.

Water has time to ooze back into your circulation. Air bubbles are trapped between dried intestinal contents. Angry mucus pours out.

Now you're completely stopped up. You feel bloated, especially on the left side.

Cramps explode as mucus, gas and occasional watery contents squeeze through. You keep rushing to the bathroom with false alarms.

Various Causes

Food allergy can bring on irritable (spastic) colon. So can nervous tension, a rushed schedule with too little time to toilet and irritating laxatives and enemas.

While the doctor tracks down the cause, both you and your colon should rest and relax—perhaps a short vacation or several days in bed.

That rushed schedule has to slow down. No more squeezing two weeks' work into one!

Avoid any food that seems to multiply spasms and cramps. Watch out for raw fruits and vegetables. Cooking and straining can soften their irritating fiber.

Needn't Avoid

Don't eliminate alcohol, tobacco, coffee, juices and sweets unless they bring on crampy spasms. Custards and creamy foods generally soothe.

To help you break the laxative habit, your doctor may prescribe special detergent and anti-bloating pills. They keep intestinal contents moist and help trapped air escape. A brisk after-breakfast walk is a natural laxative.

Ireland Attracts U.S. Retirees

DUBLIN, Ireland — The older I grow the more meaningful becomes the maxim, "It's Later Than You Think." So when a friend called and asked if I'd like to fly along on a quick jaunt to Ireland I heard myself asking "When do we leave?"

We hopped a jet in New York and just 360 silky minutes later the Emerald Isle hove into view and I felt no regrets whatever for the $305 round trip fare invested in the excursion.

Every plane and ship headed this way carries retired Americans destined for a residence in Ireland — some for a few weeks or months, others for a year or two, and many for the rest of their lives.

Some are rich, some are poor. But most have a few thousand dollars stashed away, plus a splendidly dependable U. S. Social Security check winging its way to their post office box each month.

At the airport there were cab drivers eager to carry suitcases and open doors — a courtesy I thought no longer existed. A room and bath awaited at a leading hotel for less than $10 a day. Dinner under the crystal chandeliers of the grand dining room was a delicious, full course extravaganza which cost one pound, or $2.80, including the tip.

And the first day ended seeing a hit play at the famed Abbey Theatre from an orchestra seat which cost 10 shillings, or $1.40.

What attracts so many older Americans to Ireland? Many are drawn by the legendary charm and wholesome delights of this tiny island which are only slightly exaggerated. But a more practical magnet is the hope of stretching dollars in this country where most things cost less.

The first retiree I met was Frank Connery. He and his sister Nancy were born here but emigrated to the States in 1937. They became U. S. citizens and for a quarter of a century Frank clerked in a copper firm and Nancy toiled as a nurse. Then last year they retired and now plan to divide their time between the U. S. and Ireland.

"Our money goes further here," said Connery. "Back in Brooklyn, N. Y. we paid $150 a month for the four room apartment we shared. But here we pay half that and the rooms are larger. Groceries and clothing are a bit lower. And stage plays, sports events, and transportation are a lot less."

"People are really friendly — even more so than in the States. They don't rush and hurry so much, and there's less crime and violence."

"But the weather's better in the States, and we miss the central heating and supermarkets. That's why we plan to divide our time — a year or two here, and then a year or two in the States. We love variety and with travel so cheap these days we think everyone who retires should enjoy the change and excitement of living in different places."

Connery's right. More men and women who retire should spread their wings and fly off to enjoy brief residencies in far-flung places. If you budget your dollars wisely you can do it for little more than it costs to stay home, and in the process you'll be treating yourself to the new experiences so essential to a stimulating retirement.

Diplomats, Sea Captains To Affect Business

NEW YORK (AP) — Business judgments suddenly depend less on statistics and economic indicators than they do on diplomats and sea captains.

The naval blockade around Cuba and the international tensions it brought now stand as the prime factors in trying to determine which way business is going.

Talk of inflation or deflation, tax cut or tax hike, boom or bust all pivoted on the possibility of military encounters.

With the crisis still fresh, businessmen have had little time to act outwardly on it, however. Few even cared to guess as to what it will mean.

Only the stock market, which must try to anticipate important changes, reacted immediately. And the market's seesaw action indicated that even Wall Streeters had trouble agreeing on what's coming.

In this climate of international complexities, some important business happenings were only partially digested. These included excellent earning reports by auto firms and continued zooming car sales, a dividend cut by Bethlehem Steel and a variety of general business indices that seemed to point on balance to a continued economic plateau.

The Cuban situation seemed to raise several possibilities:

1. A Korea-like, limited conflict somewhere in the world.
2. No U.S. fighting, but unrest and upheavals that could disrupt raw material supplies and world transportation — communication lines in general.
3. Little overt change, but a general heating up of the cold war and a long period of nerves continuing taut.
4. A summit, or other, agreement markedly reducing tension.

The possibility of all-out war is generally ignored if only because few businessmen see any way to base plans on such a catastrophe.

The stock market seemed to bet heavily at one point on some combination of a Korea-type conflict and disruption of international communications.

Such defense issues as rails, aerospace, and steels shot upward while "peace stocks" like retail stores went down sharply. International oils, especially those with Near East links, also suffered at one point.

Stock sales for the week totaled 25,062,290 shares, up considerably from the 16,682,290 of the previous week and the 16,990,958 of the comparable 1961 week. Bond sales amounted to $30,673,000 par value compared with $20,257,000 the previous week and $28,898,000 for the comparable week last year.

Other markets, during the high tension Tuesday, reflected a similar mood. Foreign stock exchanges went lower. Commodity exchanges here and abroad vaulted on guesses that prices of food and materials would increase in the future. Gold bullion was in heavy demand from people preferring to hold it rather than paper money or securities.

When tension eased, all these extreme positions began moderating.

Businessmen generally declined

Cuba, they say, gave the people a psychological boost that could translate itself into a more positive economy.

Many members of the National Association of Business Economists said that, the Cuban situation aside, they expect a mild and brief recession next year. But their president, William Butler of New York's Chase Manhattan Bank, said Cuba might well cancel that recession even though the situation does not become more acute.

Stepping back from these weighty complexities, the business community found its current news contains two familiar elements: Autos good and steel bad.

Bethlehem, the nation's No. 2 producer, didn't surprise man with its decision to cut the quarterly dividend from the regular 60 cents down to 37½ cents. The long steel slump was well known and earlier Bethlehem earnings revealed the pressure. Now speculation gains that U.S. Steel will follow suit when its directors meet next Tuesday.

Steel production sagged again, adding to general discouragement.

The automobile industry, long the bright spot of the economy, shone with new brilliance. Ward's reports said the month is likely to set a record for sales of domestic and foreign cars. Ford Motor announced a 21 per cent jump in profits for the first nine months and Chrysler, for the same period, earned $15.1 million against a loss of $20.5 million in the same period of 1961.

On This I Stand... ACTION!

As Governor of Ohio, I will work tirelessly to put into action every plan and every issue pledged during my campaign. I do not believe in idle promises! My platform is dedicated to issues of pressing importance to all Ohioans! These issues will be put into action under my administration.

● Ohio has dropped to 13th place in rate of growth in non-agricultural employment among the nation's 15 largest industrial States since 1958! Action is needed immediately to bolster Ohio's economy and regain the more than 200,000 lost jobs. There is an urgent need for my NEW JOBS AND INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY, a program that will attract new industries to Ohio, aid expansion of home industries and provide work for thousands of jobsless... a bold plan-of-action endorsed by the labor communities, industrial development experts, industrial leaders and local government officials... a program that will bring prosperity into all areas of Ohio at NO COST to Ohio taxpayers!

● HIGHER EDUCATION — We must begin preparations now for an increase of many, many thousands of students who will want to enroll in our State universities in 1970. I recommend that the continuously accumulating surplus in the capital funds program (originated by the Republican General Assembly of 1955 and approved by Ohio voters that same year) be specifically earmarked for capital expansion of our State-supported universities. This recommendation will do the job at NO INCREASE in taxes!

● SECONDARY EDUCATION — I recommend that (1) Local and State governments provide equal operational support of public schools, offering relief to local real and personal property owners; (2) Minimum teacher salaries be raised to $4,500 and legislation permitting borrowing of State Teacher Retirement Fund monies be repealed; (3) Appropriations be sufficient for needed classrooms in districts unable to provide them; (4) Appropriations be sufficient to support joint vocational school efforts by two or more districts; (5) Support of technical schools beyond high school.

● There are 11,000 elderly people in Ohio's mental hospitals who have recovered from temporary psychotic conditions due to advancing years and who could leave tomorrow. Their removal to more appropriate facilities would release them from an unhappy environment and restore their civil rights. It would relieve Ohio's mental hospitals of a serious overcrowding and permit hospital staffs to concentrate on the treatment of the mentally ill. To achieve these objectives, I propose that Ohio establish a self-financing program of Golden Age Villages to house these elderly people... at NO COST to Ohio taxpayers!

● Because Ohio does not have an adequate program in force today to cope with its youth problems, I propose the establishment, through legislative action, of an Ohio Youth Commission as a separate and independent agency of the government. This commission would assume full responsibility for present State activities in the field of prevention and treatment of juvenile delinquency, and establish and maintain close liaison with Ohio's Juvenile Courts. This modern, up-to-date YOUTH COMMISSION program can be put into effect in Ohio at NO ADDITIONAL COST!

● Because of Ohio's population density, it is imperative that Ohio provide enough State park lands to meet the skyrocketing recreational needs. Therefore, I propose the creation of a Recreation and Resources Authority. This Authority would give Ohio's talented professionals in this field a more modern tool with which to work in developing better facilities for fishing, hunting, boating, swimming and camping programs. This authority would also acquire public lands for water impoundment and a further expansion of parks and recreational facilities.

● When voters select their Governor, they select management! The Governor is charged with presenting specific programs and budgets for State operation to the General Assembly for action. Sound, prudent management of income is necessary. I propose to trim bureaucratic fat from the budget and to eliminate all unnecessary and extravagant expenditures so that more money will be made available for more essential fields, such as education!

● I propose a Research Extension Service that will act as liaison between Ohio's Research Centers and Ohio Manufacturers. Too many of the end products, developed through Ohio's Research Facilities, have gone to other States for manufacturing. This loss of industry by Ohio is not manufacturing products created by Ohio research must not continue, simply because there is a lack of information or effort, such as that demonstrated by the present administration. A Research Extension Service would avert this industrial loss!

● A well-organized, coordinated program which could effect substantial savings and thus make possible a higher and more appropriate standard of benefits to recipients. We must take the welfare program out of politics!

Youth Club Activities

CUB SCOUTS
Under the theme, "Heroes in Books," imaginations ran loose at Eastside Elementary School last week, as Cub Scout Pack No. 20 met for their October meeting.

The opening consisted of the Pledge to the Flag and group singing of "God Bless America," led by Den No. 8.

The theme of the month was much in evidence as Den No. 1 presented their own, "Visions of Heroes."

In an impressive ceremony of Akela's Council, conducted by Cubmaster Walter Wells, the following boys received Bobcat pins, which signifies the initial step of Cub Scout advancement: Lynn Ruhl, Glen Bennett, Kevin Jones, Theodore Wilson Jr., Richard Christopher, Mike Scott, Steve Johnson, Doug Looker, Dale Haines, John Williams, Danny Leeth, Robert Elkins Jr., Charles Pine and Ricky Martindale.

Other recognition given to more advanced members included: Wolf badges for Allen Willoughby, Francis and Jim Shasteen and Robbie Robins; a Bear badge for Dennis Baney and Lion badges for Larry Baney, Don Bower, Larry Jones, John Meriweather and Doug Denton.

Gold arrowpoints went to Dennis Baney, Larry Baney, Don Bower, Larry Jones, John Meriweather, Allen Willoughby, Francis and Jim Shasteen.

Silver arrowpoints were presented to Dennis and Larry Baney, Don Bower, John Meriweather, Allen Willoughby, Robbie Meyers and Steve Hankins.

A Denner stripe was awarded Dennis Baney and an Assistant Denner stripe to Don Bower.

One-year pins were presented to Steve Hankins, Robbie Meyers, Francis and Jim Shasteen, Mike Clay, Allen Willoughby and Robbie Robins.

The program was brought to a close as Den No. 5 portrayed such characters as the Vikings, Knights of the Round Table, Daniel Boone, Robin Hood and others.

In conclusion, the boys sang a Cub Scout song and formed the "living circle."

BEEF—Beef prices on all cuts are higher than at this time one year ago. Chicago wholesale prices for loins are 11-15 cents higher, rounds and rib cuts are both 5-6 cents above year ago levels and chuckers are 7 cents higher. These higher prices are a result of a combination of NFO and a short supply of top-grade cattle. Also, this is the time of year when supplies are normally down and prices up.

NEW DELHI — India's only television station recently stepped up its power to 5,000 watts and is now serving 50,000 high school students in the capital area.

Under a grant from the Ford Foundation, All India Radio is telecasting chemistry, physics, English and Hindi lectures to students in the ninth and 10th grades in Delhi. The lectures and demonstrations are taped by Indian teachers in advance.

The program began in October 1961 with 144 schools taking part. As of September this year, 379 sets were functioning in 189 schools. Extension of the program to Bombay and other cities is envisioned.

There are no plans in India at present for any other TV stations except educational ones.

JOHN WOOD

GERALD LELAND

Dr. William Cooper of Ohio University has announced that John Wood placed first in Fayette County in a recent examination based on Ohio history, government and citizenship.

John was one of 102 county and state-at-large winners from among 6,054 who took the examination. He is now eligible to take the final essay examination and compete for further honors and prizes. This examination will be held at Ohio University Nov. 30. John, a junior, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Wood, 409 Van Deman St.

Second ranking student and alternate in Fayette County is Gerald Leland, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Leland, 520 Mayfair Dr. He is a senior.

Nineteen juniors and seniors participated in the examination when it was administered at Washington High School, Sept. 27.

Examiner Recommends PUCO Deny WCH Bus Application

A Public Utilities Commission attorney - examiner has recommended that an application by Lincoln Village Transit Co., Grove City, to provide commuter bus service between Columbus and Washington C. H. be denied.

Thomas L. Starchman, the attorney - examiner, in a finding and recommendation released Saturday, found "the applicant has failed to establish the existence of a public convenience and necessity for the granting of the requested authority."

As contemplated in the application, Lincoln Village Transit Co. would supplant Eastern Greyhound Lines in the operation of a commuter bus one way each day between the two cities. Greyhound was an intervenor in behalf of the applicant.

Lincoln Village Transit Co. now has 15 days in which to file a reply. If a reply is filed, opponents of the application will have 15 days in which to file an answer.

The application then will go to the Public Utilities Commission for a formal decision. The commission may accept the attorney-examiner's recommendation and deny the application or it may find for the applicant.

Aside from local commuters who petitioned the commission to retain the present Greyhound service, other opponents were the Columbus Transit Co., Railway Express Agency, and the union which represents Greyhound drivers.

In his findings, Starchman also held that the applicant had failed to establish that services of the Railway Express Agency in transporting packages and express between Columbus and Washington C. H. was not "reasonably adequate."

Just Look What He Has From Sitting, Whittling

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — An estimated 11,700 hours of whittling have filled C. R. Burden's house, barn and basement with intricate wood carvings.

Burden, 65, has been whittling for 45 years and figures he's averaged five hours a week at turning blocks of wood into chains, coffee tables, guitar cases, chests and model log wagon complete with oxen.

A whittler is not the same as a carver, he says. A carver may use a variety of tools, while a whittler employs only a knife—or, in Burden's case, knives, since he has 75 of them.

A carver is a technician in Burden's view, while a whittler is an artist.

A cedar chest he whittled has 10,283 pieces and Burden says he has been offered $1,100 for it. But his whittling is only a hobby.

"I can sit down and just start whittling," he says, "and half a day is gone before I know it."

Warning Signal Plan Set Up At Greenfield

GREENFIELD — City officials today set up a system of siren signals which would be sounded in the event of local emergency brought about by enemy attack on the United States.

The signals were devised by Mayor Conrad A. Curren, Acting Service - Safety Director James D. Ramsey, Chiefs Thomas Redkey and Floyd Matlack, and Gerald Wilkin, Civil Defense Director.

The official public "Alert" signal will be "a steady blast of 3 to 5 minutes" on the Fire Department siren.

Should that come, the public is asked to tune their radios to Conrad for state or federal instructions.

The official public "Take Cover" signal, warning that "Attack is imminent," will be "a wailing tone or a series of short blasts of 3 minutes duration" on the siren.

Added to the pile of uncertainties are the many courses the U.S. blockade of Cuba might take. These range from shooting war down to passing incident.

In open sessions of the 49th National Foreign Trade Convention and in private talks, U.S. business leaders, along with government officials, financiers and educators are trying to assess what each possible outcome of the blockade could mean to the U.S. trade with other lands.

A number of the speeches prepared for delivery at the meeting have been revised, convention officials say. Last minute reappraisals are still the order of the day.

Just by itself the blockade jolts a lot of thinking about business prospects, especially foreign trade. That standard oratorical hedge, "all the above predictions presume no change in the international situation," is being dropped. Change is now a fact, even if how much of a change is still to be learned.

All the old problems remain—just accented a bit more.

The U.S. trade expansion act and the challenge of the European Common Market are much on the minds of the businessmen at the meeting.

The United States is now in position to bargain on lowering trade barriers such as tariffs and quotas. At the meeting here are men whose companies stand to

Business Eyes Problems Of Foreign Trade

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Businessmen in the front line of this nation's push for more foreign trade and with investments at stake in the cold war showdown are huddling here today with one thing for sure in over supply—problems.

Some 1900 executives involved in U.S. exporting, importing and foreign investment are tackling issues raised by the new American trade expansion law, touchy government-business relations, taxation of foreign income, expropriation of U.S. property overseas, and the Common Market's competitive challenge.

Added to the pile of uncertainties are the many courses the U.S. blockade of Cuba might take. These range from shooting war down to passing incident.

In open sessions of the 49th National Foreign Trade Convention and in private talks, U.S. business leaders, along with government officials, financiers and educators are trying to assess what each possible outcome of the blockade could mean to the U.S. trade with other lands.

The U.S. trade expansion act and the challenge of the European Common Market are much on the minds of the businessmen at the meeting.

The United States is now in position to bargain on lowering trade barriers such as tariffs and quotas. At the meeting here are men whose companies stand to gain if Western Europe, Japan and other nations will let in more American goods on terms more competitive with their own products than now. Others may suffer if the bargaining means lower American tariffs on foreign goods invading their fields.

And beyond this is the challenge in world markets of the growing industrial power of the European Common Market, with which the United States seeks to come to terms.

The future of American investments abroad is due for an appraisal in light of today's developments, both in Washington's worry about the deficit in the balance of payments and in the effects of the heating up of the cold war.

Government officials are on hand to tell the delegates they must export more to help pare the excess outflow of Yankee dollars over return flow. Some of the businessmen here are known to feel the government could do more if it helped raise productivity in this country and if it protected the dollar more by holding U.S. Treasury spending closer in line with tax receipts.

Complexities of the new tax regulations also are in for close scrutiny. And the businessmen here would like an inkling as to what form the promised tax cuts may take next year.

Problems—there's no lack of them—and talking them over could help.

By B. E. KELLEY

There is an old saying that "history repeats itself" which brings to mind that 64 years ago we were invading Cuba to drive out the Spaniards and give freedom to the weary islanders.

It is now possible that the U. S. may find it necessary to again invade Cuba to drive out the Communists.

A copy of The Daily Herald of June 18, 1898 gives some information about the U. S. invasion of Cuba in the Spanish - American War, when that island was wrested from the clutches of Spain which had ruled with an iron hand.

The war came after the blowing up of the U. S. Battleship Maine in Havana Harbor earlier in 1898.

When it was definitely established that the sinking of the warship was deliberate, war was declared on Spain, and most of the fighting centered in and around Cuba.

Many Fayette county men enlisted and took part in the struggle, but most of them never saw actual fighting as the war ended a few months after it started.

The old copy of The Daily Herald reported that Spain's Cadiz fleet had sailed for parts unknown, possibly to bombard Boston or some other eastern American port.

This caused a rush of U. S. warships to intercept the Spanish armada.

Gen. Miles had headquarters at Tampa, Fla., and was planning to wrest Cuba from the Spaniards.

Germany was showing a deep interest in a Spanish success, and Japan had sent warships into the trouble zone.

Richard Pearson Hobson had sunk the old "Merrimac" in the neck of Santiago Harbor where Spanish Adm. Cervera's fleet was hiding from U. S. warships.

Later the Spanish warships were blasted to pieces when they sought to escape from the harbor.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Gen. Felix Diaz, Mexican rebel, and three others were sentenced to be shot.

The Turks and the Bulgarians were locked in a death struggle.

Marshall Williams of Leesburg was shot by a bootlegger he was endeavoring to take to jail.

Charles S. Sollars, promoting an interurban line from Hillsboro to Washington C. H. and possibly to Columbus, had acquired some right - of - way and was seeking aid from farmers near whose land the projected road was to pass.

A man who had beaten a horse and learned an affidavit had been filed by the humane officer for his arrest, appeared before a justice of the peace, entered a plea of guilty, although no charge existed in that court, and was fined the costs, $1.75.

A county convention of K. of P. lodges was to be held in the Confidence Lodge hall here Nov. 11.

Thomas Waples, 62, whose home was three miles north of Bloomington, died.

Grant Coffman landed a 4-pound bass and 2½ pounder from a pool in Compton Creek.

Good draft horses were much in demand at the monthly stock sales here, but there was little demand for light horses.

Bankers of Group Four met in the Cherry Hotel. A. E. Sandles was the main speaker.

The DT&I was dropping some of its operators at small stations.

Mrs. Robert Bryson found a 15 inch "Cabbage snake" in a head of cabbage.

John W. Carr, of the Bookwalter area, died suddenly.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eggleston escaped serious injury when the horse they were driving took fright when two horses being led behind the buggy, also became frightened. The buggy overturned on E. Market St.

Vice President James S. Sherwood died in his home at Utica, N. Y., being the seventh vice president to die in office.

Mrs. Eva J. Penn was honored with a reception by Royal Chapter of the Eastern Star upon becoming grand matron of the order in Ohio.

A state inspector ordered fire escapes and a new boiler for the county infirmary building.

P. R. Armbrust, owner of the Clover Leaf Dairy, was erecting a new dairy building on Lewis Rd.

Funds for a new creamery here had been subscribed, and work on the $7,000 project was to start as soon as a suitable lot was found.

This community and many others were facing the worst coal famine in years.

Fred Groves, near Yatesville, built the largest privately owned concrete bridge in the county. It was so constructed that water would flow over it during flood time. Frank M. Kennedy was the engineer.

The cornerstone for the new Masonic Temple was laid.

Cuba's Effect On Steel Eyed

CLEVELAND (AP) — Effects of the Cuban crisis on steel buying will be slight provided there's no shooting war, Steel Magazine said today.

The publication said there's a good chance the Cuban situation will cause most users to re-evaluate their inventories. Stocks at many plants are so close to minimum working levels now that a sudden extension of mill deliveries could halt production, Steel explained, adding:

"If the crisis deepens, military requirements will increase; mobilization plans will go into effect, and some steel products may be put on allocation.

"If our enemies start little wars all over the world in an attempt to drain our resources, the steel market will undoubtedly tighten—even in tonnage products. Users will try to build inventories before restrictions are slapped on production of consumer durables."

The market tightened rapidly after the Chinese invaded South Korea in 1950, Steel recalled, but operations were at a fairly high level when the invasion started.

With steel operations today running at less than 60 per cent of capacity nationwide, "there's no reason for panic buying," said the national weekly journal of metal-working.

Meanwhile, steel orders continued on a gradual uptrend. Steel quoted mills as saying their bookings are running 5 to 10 per cent ahead of last month's pace.

Output this week is expected to be near the 1.73 million tons that Steel estimated the industry poured last week.

Scrap dealers also are assessing the Cuban crisis, Steel said, as traders think prices will strengthen quickly if the situation deteriorates. Steel's composite on the key grade, No. 1 heavy melting, was unchanged last week at $24.67 a gross ton.

Idle Pay Fund Said Shrinking

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Auditor James A. Rhodes, Republican candidate for governor, says Ohio's unemployment fund will be "practically bankrupt at the end of the year unless the jobless trend is reversed."

Rhodes, in a campaign release Friday, said the unemployment fund "is at its lowest point since it began payment of unemployment compensation in 1939." He claimed it has dropped $250 million in the years the present Democratic state administration has been in office.

The Republican candidate cited a 9.4 per cent increase in unemployment for the week ended Oct. 20 over the previous week. Rhodes said this means there were 7,000 more unemployed for the week. Besides this, he said, there were more than 1,000 people who had exhausted their unemployment benefits and still had not found work.

There Is No Great Big Crisis In Cuba (Clinton County)

CUBA, Ohio (AP)—It was cold in Cuba—in fact it snowed a little—but there were no missiles and no crisis and little concern there ever would be one.

The negotiators sit daily around a glowing fire—some of them on a long seat well known in Cuba as "The Liars' Bench." The e, for hours on end, they discuss things like the blockade, the Berlin crisis, fighting on the Chinese-Indian border, or such Cuban matters as that new farmer who just moved in down the road a piece.

They meet daily in Bobbitt's General Store and the worse the weather, the more of them there are and the bigger the problem they discuss.

"Some days, it's kinda hard to get up a quorum," admits Paul Bobbitt, owner of the store and postmaster of Cuba for 39 years. "But on a cold day there's no problem at all, except sometimes it gets a little crowded."

Their own Cuba consists of Bobbitt's General Store and a dozen or so houses in central Clinton County a few hundred feet off U.S. 68, five miles south of Williamsburg.

Cuba is a quiet town, peaceful and serene, but it was not always that way. In fact, it was not always called Cuba and it has had its share of beards.

Mrs. Rose Watson, the town historian who is compiling a history of Cuba which she hopes to get published some day, said it used to be called just "The Crossroads" because two stagecoaches trails intersected here.

"Then it became known as Paris, when one of the town citizens came up with that idea, and it was known as that for many a year. It had many taverns and saloons in those days and many were the wild parties held here. In fact, so wild were the parties and so wild the town's reputation that it also had a striking nickname: Hell's Half Acre," Mrs. Watson recalled.

Today the surviving taverns are closed, their windows boarded up. Several have burned down or were demolished and hauled away.

But Cuba is still there, though not as lively. And if the President should ever run across any problems he can't solve, the experienced negotiators of Cuba—Cuba, Ohio—will be glad to give him a hand.

Ohio production of farm products has increased about 35 or 40 per cent in the last 20 years.

Northwestern, Southern Cal Alabama Hailed

Trio Is Unchallenged As Giants Of College Gridiron Standings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Alabama, Northwestern and Southern California stood tree-top tall today as the unchallenged giants of the gridiron following a weekend in which three members of the nation's major college football elite ran into timber—trimming buzz-saws.

Texas, holder of the No. 1 ranking for two weeks, fell from the list of unbeaten and untied teams as did another member of the top ten in The Associated Press poll—Wisconsin—on a Saturday program that left only eight major teams with perfect records.

The Longhorns were tied 14-14 by winless Rice on a late pass from Randall Korb to Ron Graham and Kerbow's conversion. Wisconsin, No. 5, dropped a 14-7 decision to Ohio State's bounce-back Buckeyes and Washington, No. 8, was tied by Oregon 21-21.

Alabama's Crimson Tide (6-0) continued to roll, pushing past Tulsa 35-6, Northwestern's Big Ten leaders (5-0) smashed once-mighty Notre Dame 25-6 and Southern Cal (5-0) shipped Illinois 28-16. The triumvirate was ranked 2-3-4 last week.

Five other teams remained undefeated and untied—Mississippi (5-0), Auburn (5-0), Nebraska (6-0), Dartmouth (5-0) and Ohio University (6-0)—while four teams have been tied but not beaten. On that list are Texas (5-0-1), Washington (4-0-2), Louisiana State (5-0-1) Missouri (5-0-1) and Bowling Green (6-0-1).

While Bama, Northwestern and USC were parading their talents, a host of others were bucking for higher positions or beckoning for recognition among the elite.

LSU and Mississippi, Nos. 6 and 7, scored easily, the Tigers manhandling Florida 23-0 and Ole Miss clobbering Vanderbilt 35-0. Ninth-rated Arkansas walloped Hardin-Simmons 49-7, and No. 10 Michigan State defeated Indiana 26-8.

Auburn, clamoring for a spot in the top ten, used a last period field goal by Woody Woodall for a 17-14 triumph over Clemson, Nebraska mauled Colorado 31-6, Missouri marched over Iowa State 21-6. Dartmouth drubbed Harvard 24-6 while allowing its first touchdown and Ohio U. trampled Buffalo 41-6. Bowling Green was tied by Miami of Ohio 24-24.

That set up some key conference clashes that likely will go far toward lining up the post-season bowl rosters and settling the top ten alignment. Here's a quick rundown of the conference races:

SOUTHEASTERN — Alabama leads with 4-0 record, Auburn, which meets the Crimson Tide Dec. 1, has a 3-0 mark along with Mississippi and LSU, who meet in a crucial game Saturday night at Baton Rouge, La.

SOUTHWEST — SMU, which beat Texas Tech 14-0 Saturday, on top at 2-0 with Texas a notch below at 2-0-1. The leaders come to together at Austin this weekend.

BIG TEN — Northwestern out front at 3-0 with Michigan State and Purdue a step back at 2-0. The Wildcats' toughest test should be a Nov. 17 clash with the Spartans.

BIG EIGHT — Nebraska and Missouri at head of the class with 3-0 records. Oklahoma 2-0. The co-leaders collide Saturday at Lincoln, Neb.

BIG SIX — Southern Cal, Washington and Washington all 1-0 with the Huskies invading Los Angeles Saturday to tangle with the Trojans.

ATLANTIC COAST — Maryland (4-0), 13-11 winner over South Carolina, and Duke (3-0), which beat North Carolina State 21-14, probably will settle the issue a week from Saturday in their head-to-head clash.

Ivy — Dartmouth (3-0) all alone, but must face Princeton and Cornell yet. Big Red beat Princeton Saturday 35-34, tying Tigers at 2-1.

SOUTHERN — VMI, 6-0 conqueror of The Citadel, boasts 4-0 record with West Virginia, which lost its first to Oregon State, 51-22, at 2-0.

MID-AMERICAN — Ohio U. at 3-0, Bowling Green 4-0-1.

YANKEE — Massachusetts 3-0, New Hampshire 2-0-1.

MISSOURI VALLEY — Tulsa 1-0.

MIDDLE ATLANTIC — Bucknell 5-0, Delaware 3-0.

Tittle's Aerial Wizardry Brings Defeat To Redskins

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Y. A. Tittle, a pinpoint passer extraordinary, sent the title chances of the New York Giants soaring in the Eastern Division of the National Football League after a record-equaling head-shaking performance that punctured the Washington Redskins' bubble.

Tittle, bald dean of the NFL's quarterbacks at a very young 36, took apart the Redskins piece-by-piece Sunday with a display of aerial wizardry that equaled the fabled Sid Luckman's single-game record of seven touchdown passes.

His efforts propelled the Giants to a resounding 49-34 victory over the previously unbeaten Redskins. The victory left New York with a 5-2 mark as the NFL season crossed the halfway point, but the Giants were still in second place in the Eastern Conference, behind Washington by only 86 percentage points. The Redskins have won four, lost one and have a pair of ties. Ties do not count in the final percentages.

The Giants, with Tittle's precision performances each week giving them added momentum, have the schedule on their side. Washington still must play New York again, has two games with the still-tough Pittsburgh Steelers, and one each with the Cleveland Browns, Baltimore Colts, Philadelphia Eagles and Dallas Cowboys. All but Philadelphia are rough and tumble clubs.

The Browns stayed in the Eastern Conference race by walloping Pittsburgh 41-14. Brown quarterback Jim Ninowski suffered a separated shoulder and may be out for four weeks. Green Bay kept its unbeaten record atop the Western Conference with a 17-6 victory over Baltimore. Detroit took over second place by edging the Chicago Bears, 11-3.

In other NFL games, the St. Louis Cards upset the Cowboys 28-24, Minnesota's Vikings surprised Philadelphia 31-21 and the Los Angeles Rams (1-6) upset the San Francisco 49ers (3-4) 28-14.

Tittle, in his last year of pro football before retiring to devote full time to his San Francisco insurance business, gave the Redskins pass defense a lesson they'll never forget. He completed 27 of 39 passes for 595 yards and hit end Joe Walton for three touchdowns, halfback Joe Morrison for two and nailed Del Shofner and Frank Gifford for one each.

Shofner, still suffering the effects of a shoulder separation incurred two weeks ago, was his chief target. He caught 11 passes for 269 yards.

The Packers (7-0) also relied on their defense, which halted the Colts eight times in Green Bay territory. Packer fullback Jim Taylor broke open the game with a 37-yard touchdown run following a pass interception by linebacker Ray Nitschke. Paul Hornung once again missed playing for the Packers because of an injured knee, but quarterback Bart Starr's passing, including a TD toss to McGee, was enough to beat the Colts (3-4). Dick Butkus's two field goals were all Baltimore could muster.

Len Dawson, a priceless piece of property who found himself a no-cash-down commodity after five years on the pro football market, has come full circle since leaving the unemployment office for a job with the Dallas Texans of the American Football League.

Dubbed "pro football's next great quarterback" when he entered the pro ranks, Dawson gathered experience and splinters in five years in the NFL, but has turned into Big D at Dallas. His passing Sunday carried the Texans to the top in the Western Division as they rode over Houston 31-7.

The former Purdue star, dubbed by Bobby Layne with the "next great" label, watched his price tag dwindle in five years of spear carrying for Layne at Pittsburgh and Milt Plum at Cleveland. Dawson says he didn't flunk the NFL test—he never took it.

"All the games I ever played in already were won or lost when I finally got off the bench," says Dawson.

Dawson passed for three touchdowns as the Texans knocked defending league champion Houston from a first-place tie with Boston in the East. The Patriots, who whipped Oakland 26-16 Friday, are 5-2 to the Oilers' 4-3.

A half-game in front of Denver (6-2), upended by Buffalo Sunday 45-38 on the long-range bombs of Warren Rabb. In the league's other game, New York's Titans belted San Diego's Western Division defenders 23-3.

Abner Haynes got the first Texans' touchdown on a 1-yard plunge before Dawson took over. He pitched a 49-yarder to Chris Burford and followed with a 3-yarder to the same target, pulling Dallas out front 21-0.

Dawson, at 27 the Texans' senior citizen and the only NFL reject on the squad, wound up the day with a 5-yard TD flip to Fred Arbanas. He completed 12 of 16 passes for 177 yards.

Browns Look For Another Quarterback

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Coach Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns was looking today for a quarterback to replace injured Jim Ninowski; and with reserve quarterback Frank Ryan, help the Browns maintain their full head of steam.

The Browns bounced back into the National Football League's title picture Sunday with a 41-14 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Ryan, who stepped in at quarterback after Ninowski suffered a dislocated left shoulder and fractured clavicle early in the second quarter, shook off initial jitters and completed 11 of 18 passes for 144 yards and two touchdowns.

The Browns' defense did an effective job of rushing Steelers' quarterback Bobby Layne, who was benched after a first half in which he hit on only five of 16 passes.

Jim Brown looked more like the Cleveland fullback of old, picking up 93 yards on 21 carries. He caught four passes for 35 yards. One was a 15-yard fling for a touchdown. Brown also scored on a one-yard plunge.

"The whole team played hard," said coach Brown after the game. "If Jim hadn't been hurt we really could be happy. It was a costly afternoon in that regard. You never know, though. Now we'll find out for sure about Frank. He's capable and you know he's a smart young man."

Best Game Ever Played By Panthers Against Indians

There's general agreement among the estimated 2,500 fans who attended the Miami Tackle - Hillsboro football game here last Friday that the Panthers put on their best performance in their three-year history—against a team that had proven itself a tough competitor in its previous games.

The way things stand now, the worst way the Panthers could finish up their fourth Central Ohio League season is a tie for the second spot, and if they could stop the league leading unbeaten Tigers Friday at Circleville, they stand a chance of wrapping up first place.

Coach Dan O'Brien praised his defensive unit for a "standout job" in the Indian encounter. The offensive blocking, he noted, opened paths for five backs to contribute to the Panthers' 239 total rushing yards.

Bill Hall, junior right halfback who scored all 14 MT points, carried the ball 21 times for 170 yards, an 8.1 average; sophomore Fred Hoppes accumulated 30 yards on six tries for a 5-yd. average; sophomore fullback Dave Jenkins picked up 9 yards on one try; junior halfback Roger Hodge ran the pigskin twice for 16 yards and quarterback senior, Larry Avey ran four times for 14 yards. Avey also completed five of 15 passes to end Dave Craig which accounted for an additional 82 yards.

Baffling Bucks Are Up Again

Miami, BGs Battle To 24-24 Deadlock

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's baffling Buckeyes, up and down like a yo-yo this fall, are back on the fringe of the fight for the Big Ten title.

The Bucks belted the Badgers of Wisconsin 14-7 Saturday before a crowd of 82,540.

The conquest ended a seven-Wisconsin winning streak; halted at eight the pass-touchdown skein of Badger end Pat Richter; kept intact the Buck trend of not losing to Wisconsin here since 1918, and pushed the Bucks into a 21 tie with Wisconsin and Minnesota for fourth place in the league.

Coach Woody Hayes, after each team had scored on a sensational pass play in the first half, threw away his overhead offense and stayed on the ground to score the clincher mid-way in the final quarter.

While the Bucks and Badgers were battling, other Ohio colleges were putting on quite a show.

In the big one at Oxford, Redskins held Bowling Green's defending Mid-American Conference champions to a 24-24 deadlock. The title still rests, however, on the outcome of the Nov. 10 tilt between the Be-Gees and Ohio University. The Bobcats rolled to their sixth straight, 41-6, over Buffalo in a non-loop affair.

Wilmington ended a 22 - game losing streak by defeating Defiance 16-0, but the game doesn't count in the Mid-Ohio loop stand-ins. Earlier Defiance defeated Wilmington 14 - 8, and that one goes into the ratings.

Dayton's Flyers, after menacing some of the Midwest's best in five futile outings, broke into the wincolumn Friday, 13-12 over Detroit. Mount Union, a 24-14 winner over Hiram, also came up with its first conquest of the year—and now only Case Tech and Marietta haven't cracked the victory column.

Akron and Wittenberg, racing toward a Nov. 10 showdown for the Ohio Conference Crown, were easy winners. The Zips won 46-12 over Capital, and Wittenberg nipped Ohio Wesleyan 37-6—the Bishops getting only the second touchdown allowed by the Lutherans this season.

Wilmington Hurricane Downs Falcons, 22-6

A high geared second period in which all three touchdowns and all four extra points were scored gave Wilmington's Hurricane a 22-6 victory over the Falcons at Franklin Heights Saturday night and put it right back in the running for secondary honors in the South Central Ohio League this season.

The game was scheduled for Friday night, when all other six teams in the league were in action, but it was postponed because of snow and ice on the Franklin Heights field.

The Hurricane, which will host the Lions from WHS next Friday night, gained a net of 374 yards while holding the Falcons to 61 yards.

Chris Stephens, the quarterback had a big night. He ran and passed for 233 yards and scored two of the Hurricane's three TDs. He also completed six of 11 passes for 96 yards.

Halfback Wayne Simonon tallied first for the Hurricane early in the second period on a one-yard plunge and Jim Bailey, end, took a three yard pass from Stephens for the two extra points.

Midway in the period, Stephens slanted off tackle for 3 yards and the second TD but his pass to Bailey for the extra points failed.

With less than a minute to go in the first half, Stephens raced 68 yards on a rollout for the Hurricane's third and last touchdown. Fred Raizik hit the middle for the two extra points.

That ended the Hurricane scoring, but it was enough to down the Falcons, whose only TD came when Larry Graves intercepted one of Stephens' aeriels and dashed 82 yards across the goal line. The try for the extra points failed.

THE VICTORY put the Hurricane, now with a 3-1 record, in third place in the SCO behind Circleville's unbeaten first place Tigers and the second place Miami Trace Panthers, who have won three and tied two but have not been defeated.

The defeat dropped the Falcons into next - to - last place and, at the same time raised the WHS Lions to sixth place in the eight - team circuit.

It was the fourth SCO loss against one victory for the Falcons.

The Lions have won one, lost three and tied one.
This is the way they stand in the SCO after the weekend shake-up:
Circleville 5-0-0
Miami Trace 3-0-2
Wilmington 3-1-1
Hillsboro 3-2-0
Pleasant View 2-3-0
Washington C. H. 1-3-1
Franklin Heights 1-4-0
Greenfield 0-5-0

Indianapolis Loses Control In United Loop

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Indianapolis, which up until two weeks ago was making a run-away of the Western Division of the United Football League and appeared to be a sure bet for the league championship, has suddenly found itself tied for the lead by fast-closing Grand Rapids.

The Warriors, who won their first six games, suffered their second defeat in as many weeks Saturday, losing to unpredictable Wheeling, 28-21.

In other UFL games over the weekend, Eastern Division leader Columbus won its second straight game on the educated toe of Ernie Spychalski, edging Cleveland 14-13; quarterback Ed Chlebek shattered two passing records as he led Grand Rapids to its fourth straight win, 54-12 over Louisville, and Toledo topped Chicago 48-20.

Elmo Hodge, a 217-pound full-back, blasted for three touchdowns in leading Wheeling to its conquest of Indianapolis. The two teams meet again next week at Wheeling in a contest which may decide the Western crown.

In 1960 when Pete Runnels of the Boston Red Sox won the American League batting title he hit .320. This year he batted .325 to win the crown again.

Five Yankees hit 20 or more home runs this season. Roger Maris had 33, Mickey Mantle 30, Moose Skowron 23, Ellie Howard, 21 and rookie Tom Tresh 20.

The Stars Say—By ESTRELLITA

For Tomorrow

DON'T WASTE time on non-essentials during Thursday's early hours. The aspects then will be highly propitious for getting "big" things done, so make the most of them.

During the P.M. there is a possibility of receiving some interesting news from afar; of interesting communications generally.

For The Birthday

If tomorrow is your birthday, your chart indicates that your occupational and financial prospects should be better now than they have been for some time past and that if you mobilize your efforts to take advantage of fine aspects, beginning in mid-December and continuing for most of the next 12 months, you should find your affairs in fine shape before your next birthday rolls around. Personal relationships will also play an important role in your life in December, as well as in the period between May and September of 1963. It would be wise to enlarge your circle of acquaintances then, since they could prove invaluable in both your social and business life.

Romance and domestic affairs have stellar blessing during the next year, too, with special emphasis on the months of December, June and August. Avoid speculation and/or extravagance during November, March and April.

A child born on this day will be endowed with high ambitions, great versatility and a fine sense of loyalty.

Old man winter sure came in with a bang last week. He huffed and puffed and blew snow all over the place. Sure gives me that Florida fever and Lord willing, when you read this (if you don't read it you haven't missed anything) I'll be on my way. So my comments for the next several weeks will be from the sunny south. I may have to take a day or two off, sail over to Cuba and straighten Castro out, also give him a little advice about listening so attentively to a big bum called Khrushchev.

I'm glad J.F.K. finally decided to take a firm stand. Only mistake, he should have done it months and months ago. Attended a Cub Scout meeting with Garndson Don the other night. He got several awards and I was real proud. Several "Packs" were present and many awards were made. Some interesting historical skirts were put on which Garnddaughter Peggy and I enjoyed very much. The Cub Scout Den Mothers deserve a lot of praise for their work with these boys.

Tuesday is Election Day. You can bet your bottom dollar I voted before I left. I think we all realize just how tense the world situation is at present. All the more reason we should all vote. We need straight thinking officials in our Country, State and National Governments today. Lets hope and pray that everyone keeps cool and thinks straight during this critical period.

You know I've found one of the best places in the world to do some serious thinking is driving down the highway behind the wheel of a new Chevrolet or Buick. Folks, trying is believing.

Observation: Physicians used to cure most ills by bleeding the patient. Politicians are still trying to cure most of our national ills by bleeding the taxpayer.

Dedication Ceremonies Held Sunday At MTHS

Residents of the Miami Trace school district dedicated their new high school at Eber Sunday afternoon with formal ceremonies which included an address by a member of the State Board of Education.

The Rev. Russell H. Hoy, Co-shoctor, named to the State Board from the 17th Congressional District in 1955, told an audience of approximately 350 that educational processes are undergoing a revolution far different than the one older generations have known.

Pointing out that it was the schools which pulled a budding nation together, Mr. Hoy said that the challenges of the Space Age call for new educational techniques, higher learning and professional standards, enlarged curricula, better teachers and the fullest cooperation among parents, teachers, students and the public.

He congratulated Fayette County on its "pioneer spirit" in creating a single local school district out of a scattering of smaller districts and said that economy and efficiency would indicate still further consolidations in the years ahead.

Miss Grace Fern Heck, Springfield bonding attorney for the Miami Trace Board of Education, gave a short address preceding the presentation of a flag to the new school.

WILLIAM E. WILLIAMS, representing the Sever Williams Co., general contractors, presented the master key to the school to John Kline, the architect, who in turn presented it to Taylor Groff, president of the Board of Education.

County Superintendent Roger O. Hoffman introduced the speaker, and George R. Groh Jr., MTHS principal, presented the platform guests.

Lutherans Eye Annual Budget For Operation

A tentative operating budget for the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church for the coming year was presented at the annual stewardship dinner meeting in the Farm Bureau auditorium Sunday night.

The budget figures will not be released until after the completion of the every-member canvass, probably within the next two or three weeks.

The Rev. Joseph N. Radabaugh, pastor, said only that the proposed budget "approximates that of last year" and explained that the budget will not be adopted by the congregation until after the every-member canvass contributions are known. He indicated the final budget will be fitted to the amount of money available.

The proposed budget was submitted by Robert Linder, chairman of the finance committee. As the tentative figures for the six phases of the budget were held up on cards by children of the Sunday School, the need was explained by Lloyd Fennig, Dr. Don Pfeiderer, William McKinnon, Roger Miller and Linder.

Dr. Ralph Gebhart, stewardship chairman, presided at the meeting. He emphasized that the every-member canvass is to raise money for the operating budget and is in no way related to the church building program.

A TRACT on N. North St., site of the former Buck Greenhouses, has been acquired for a church building and the building committee is now in the process of selecting the architect. Financing for the new house of worship has been assured through a fund-raising campaign and loan from the church's Board of American Missions.

The stewardship covered dinner marked the third anniversary of the founding of the Good Shepherd Church here. The ham and coffee were provided by a committee headed by Mrs. Maurice Farmer.

Mrs. Fennig led the singing. Following the business session, the Rev. Ka. M. Glaesner, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church in Springfield, predicted that "the United States has about five years left before communism takes over unless there is a resurgence of the church."

The Rev. Mr. Glaesner, a reserve officer in the U. S. Air Force who has been interested in the mental health and aerospace programs, told of "shocking" conditions he had seen during a recent tour of South and Central American countries. After describing the poverty of the people, he said there is evidence that the Latin countries are being infiltrated by Communists.

13 Attend Farm Bureau School

YOUTH LEADERS—Thirteen Fayette County young people who attended the Ohio Farm Bureau-sponsored Youth Leadership School at Tecumseh High School, near Xenia, Saturday were (kneeling, left to right) Karen Carman, Beth Pero and Alice Craig, (second row) Frank Alexander, Fayette County Farm Bureau organization director, Jo Anne Paisley, Theresa Pero, Nina Roehm and Jean Owens, and (top row) Marvin Arnold, Charles Ritenour, Gregg Thompson, David Craig, Larry Grim and Helen Bihl.

Thirteen Fayette County young people returned from Saturday's all-day Youth Leadership School in Tecumseh High School near Xenia with a better conception of leadership qualities and some other ideas they plan to pass along to youth groups here.

The school, sponsored by the Ohio Farm Bureau, brought together more than 150 young leaders from 20 Southwestern Ohio counties in this Farm Bureau district.

One of the highlights of the meeting was an illustrated talk by Miss Shirley Boyd, of Hancock County, on her one-year stay on a farm in Denmark as part of the IFYE program. She told of life in rural Denmark and answered many questions by members of the group.

Alice Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Craig, near Bloomingburg, was the songfest leader Saturday evening. Miss Craig is now a freshman at Ohio State University.

In addition to several sessions on square dancing, the group devoted part of the time to training in non-musical games which they will teach to youth groups in their home counties.

Judge Omar A. Schwartz imposed the penalty against Richard Jay Weimhoff, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Weimhoff, 8 Winnepeg Plaza, and Harold E. Lindsay, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lindsay, Rt. 2.

The judge stipulated that Weimhoff may drive only to get the license and must pass the test first. The other youth must pass the test within 30 days and obtain the court's permission before securing a driver's license.

Auto Leaves Road; Youth Suffers Cuts

A 16-year-old Washington C. H. youth escaped with minor injuries when a car in which he was riding left Stafford Rd. and overturned in a field about six miles south of here about 8:30 p. m. Saturday.

Steve Rettig, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Rettig, 919 Briar Ave., passenger in the car driven by Michael W. Whiteside, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Whiteside, 130 Oakland Ave., was treated at Memorial Hospital for cuts on his forehead and later released. Whiteside was unhurt.

Sheriff's Deputy Robert L. Cannon said Whiteside's car failed to negotiate a curve on Stafford Rd., about a mile south of U. S. Rt. 62-S. The vehicle crashed through a fence and overturned in a field on the Eugene Cockerill farm about 165 feet from the roadway.

Damage to the car was estimated at approximately $1,000. About 100 feet of fence was torn down on the Cockerill farm.

THREE OTHER traffic mishaps were investigated by police and sheriff's department officers during the weekend. None of them resulted in personal injury.

At 5 p. m. Sunday, a car driven by Thelma M. Gole, 54 Chillicothe, traveling south on Rt. 35-S, plunged into a ditch about a mile outside of Washington C. H. Damage to the car was estimated at $50.

Mona L. Keaton, 20 Rt. 2, New Holland, said wet pavement caused her car to skid when she applied brakes while approaching the traffic light at North and Market Sts. about 7 p. m. Sunday. Her car struck the rear of another, driven by Ada Beil Riddle, 52, Lancaster, which was stopped at the light.

Damage to the Keaton car was estimated at $100; to the other at $50. No one was cited.

Lola A. Timmons, 26, Springfield, told police she was driving too close to the curb when her car went onto the sidewalk and struck the railing of the Paint Creek bridge on Dayton Ave. at 7:30 p. m. Only light damage resulted to the car and bridge railing.

Contract Awarded For Ditch Project

Bids were received by the Fayette County Board of Commissioners Monday morning on a proposed 2,300-foot improvement of the James County Ditch on the border of Union and Paint townships.

The contract was awarded to Marshall McFarland of Circleville, one of three bidders, at a price of $946.63.

Other bidders were the Murphy Construction Co., Chillicothe, $2,023.20 and Robert Huff, Bloomingburg, $1,112.92. The engineer's estimate was $1,386.15.

Four bidders appeared before the commissioners in connection with the proposed purchase of a tractor-type truck to be used by the county engineer's office.

The commissioners deferred decision until later.

Capt. Virgil Sexton, Fayette County's Director of Civil Defense, talked to the commissioners about the progress of Civil Defense planning and activity. He acquainted them with the county's organizational work to date and what may be expected to be accomplished in the immediate future.

Other matters before the board were routine.
